The church is destroyed as God's temple by so defiling it that God will not dwell in it.

Every person built into the spiritual temple of God must be sanctified by the blood of Christ.

Every ordinance and appointment of service is consecrated by that blood. (Acts 4:12, 1Pe 3:18, 2Jo 1:9)

To bring a person or service into the church not sealed by the blood of Christ defiles it. The persons who enter according to the terms laid down in the New Testament, and the ordinances and the provisions there made for serving God, are sealed by the blood of Christ. None others are To bring into the church those not admitted by the law of Christ is to defile the temple of God, so that God refuses to dwell in it. (Can you name the defiles?)
